ABSTRACT

UNHCR through REACH/IMPACT Initiative, conducted a Socio-Economic Vulnerability Assessment (SEVA) in 47 Priority Areas of Return and Reintegration (PARRs) across the country. To understand the current status of reintegration for displaced groups prior to Co-PROSPER implementation in the PARR districts, REACH/IMPACT Initiative conducted a baseline evaluation of the 50 newly selected PARR locations across four different dimensions: 1) community leadership inclusivity, 2) community relations and stability, 3) strengthening public services and equitable access, and 4) livelihood and economic outlook. Indices were created to determine a baseline for these four key objectives.

The assessment covered 6,067 HH interviews in 47 PARRs and targeted refugee returnees, IDPs, IDP returnees and host communities. In addition, Neighborhood Maps (nMaps) were developed to identify key infrastructure and services in each PARR.
